

South Central Regional Library Council

Grant Writing Workshop

Date/Time: Thursday, May 29, 2008; 9:30 am – 12:30 pm
Location: SCRLC, Downtown Ithaca, NY
Instructor: Barbara Berger Eden, Cornell University
Registration: $45/SCRLC members; $55 non-members.
Audience: Librarians, directors, and support staff from all types of libraries responsible for grant proposal writing and administration.

In these days of stagnant or shrinking budgets, librarians need to identify alternative sources of funding. One solution to this problem is to develop a successful grants program. Learn how to master writing a grant proposal by attending this workshop.

Barbara Berger Eden, Director, Department of Preservation and Collection Maintenance, Cornell University Library, has been writing proposals for the past twenty years that have covered a wide-spectrum of library projects. She has been the coordinator of projects that have included digitization of special collections to education and training of library staff.

South Central Regional Library Council Grant Writing Workshop, May 29, 2008

Please email dcapalongo@lakenet.org, send or fax this form and payment by 5/01/08 to:
SCRLC, Clinton Hall, 108 N. Cayuga St., Ithaca NY 14850
Telephone: 607-273-9106 Fax: 607-272-0740
Confirmation and directions will be emailed promptly

Name _____

Institution _____

Address _____

Telephone (day) _____ Emergency* _____

*Emergency phone (home or cell) will only be used for a last minute change or cancellation.

Email Address _____

REGISTRATION FEE: Coffee/refreshments are included. Make checks payable to SCRLC

_____ $45 per person for SCRLC members, including staff from
SCRLC-member public and school library systems
_____ $55 per person for non-members

MasterCard, Visa, Discover or American Express are accepted (may be called in if you prefer)

Card Holder _____ 3 digit code from back _____

Credit Card# _____ Exp Date _____

Signature _____